PRIVACY POLICY

Pedalheads respects its customers' rights to personal privacy. Personal information is not lent or sold to any person or agency for any purpose. Any personal information customers provide to Pedalheads will be used to deliver services to them and to keep them informed and up to date about the activities of the company.

Text messaging consent - By opting in, you agree to receive transactional SMS from Pedalheads about your registration (confirmations, schedule updates, reminders). Not marketing. Message & data rates may apply. Customers can respond with "HELP" to receive contact information for Customer Care and information on how to update your SMS communications preferences. Reply STOP to opt out.

- Data use: Your phone number will only be used for the purposes described above and will not be shared with third parties for marketing purposes.
- Frequency and costs: Text messages may be sent periodically and standard message and data rates may apply based on your mobile carrier plan.

Online Advertising

- Pedalheads may use customer email addresses to create secure, encrypted customer lists for advertising purposes through trusted platforms like Google Ads and Meta. This process allows us to deliver more relevant content to our customers and similar audiences without exposing any personal data.
- Opt-out options: If you wish to opt out of this use, you may do so by contacting us at info@pedalheads.com

Data security

The company website and online database utilize the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol to encrypt or encode the data and ensure security during the online registration process.

Access and Changes to Your Personal Data

If you wish to have your personal information amended or removed from our databases, you may send a request to: info@pedalheads.com
